Poetry.

DUTIES. Be patient-life is very brief; It passes quickly by, And if it prove a troubled scene, Beneath a stormy sky, It is but like a shaded night, That brings a morn of radiance bright.

Be hopeful-cheerful faith will bring A living joy to thee, And make thy life a hymn of praise, From doubt and murmurs free : Whilst, like a sunbeam, thou wilt bless, And bring to others happiness.

Be earnest-an immortal soul Should be a worker true : Employ thy talents for thy God, And ever keep in view The judgment scene, the last great day, When heaven and earth shall pass away.

Be holy-let not sin's dark stain Thy spirit's whiteness dim ; Keep close to God amid the world, And put thy trust in Him, So, 'midst thy business and thy rest, Thou wilt be comforted and blest.

Be prayerful-ask, and thou wilt have Strength equal to thy day; Prayer clasps the Hand that guides the world ;

Ob make it then thy stay ! Ask largely, and thy God will be A kindly giver unto thee.

Be ready-many fall around, Our loved ones disappear; We know not when our call may come, Nor should we wait in fear; If ready, we can calmly rest, Living or dying we are blest.

---WIFE TO HUSBAND

Let us live for each other. Be kind to each other, Be true to each other, Where'er we may be; For dearer than father. And dearer than mother. And dearer than sister. And dearer than brother, Art thou to me loved one, As I am to thee.

As the snow on the mountain Finds its way to the fountain, As the gathering waters Find their way to the sea : So my thoughts, ever flowing, Are to thee ever going, No other love showing, No other love knowing, But seeking and fluding rest Only with thee.

----EVIL COMPANY.-The following beautiful allegory is translated from the German :

Sopronius, a wise teacher, would not suffer even his grown-up sons and daughters to associate with those whose conduct was not pure and upright.

"Dear father," said the gentle Eulalia to him one day, when he forbade her, in compamy with her brother, to visit the volatile Lu cinds, "dear father, you must think us very childish if you imagine that we should be exposed to danger by it."

The father took in silence a dead coal from the hearth and reached it to his daughter.

"It will not burn you, my child-take it. Kulalia did so, and behold her beautiful white hand was soiled and blackened, and, as it chanced, her white dress also.

"We cannot be too careful in handling coals," said Eulalia, in vegation

"Yes, truly," said the father; "you see, my shild, that coals, even if they do not burn, blacken; so it is with the company of the

GARDENING FOR LADIES .- Make up your 'beds' early in the morning; 'sew' buttons on your husband's shirts; do not 'rake' up any grievances; protect the 'young and tender branches' of your family; 'plant' a smile of good temper in your face, and carefully 'root' out all angry feeling, and expect a good 'crop' of happiness.

The Rev. Jacob Brillhart, of the Methedist Episcopal Church South, was recent ly seized by a mob and ridden on a rail, at Athens, East Tennessee. The cause was that he adhered to the fortunes of the Bouth in the war.

The Louisville Democrat says there is no question about the repudiation of the Federal debt. The policy of the Abolition party will run it up so high that no sane man will ever dream of paying

From the flower-lips of a lovely woman sweet words fly like honey bees, penetrating the heart as with the shafts of love, and filing the puncture with honey.

The New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says that Horace Greely and Alexander H. Stephens, Heart Ward Beecher, Ass. A. Henry Ward Beecher, Pryor, Theodore Tilton, of ent, and John H. Reagan, ex-
